LESSON 21 EXODUS 12:21-28

Exodus 12 is the chapter of the Passover. While the description of the tenth plague is given, most of the chapter deals with the implications of the plague for Israel. This inc Als	en, most of the chapter deals with the implications of the plague for Israel. This cludes the Passover and its' associated feasts, for both the immediate time and future. So included are the fulfillment of promises and the release of the people from their indage. As vv1-13 dealt with Jehovah's instructions to Moses concerning the ssover, vv21-28 deal with Moses giving these instructions to the children of Israel.

1.	What are the differences or similarities between vv21 and vv2-4?
2.	V22 gives additional detailed instructions to v7. • What is the significance of the basin or what does its' use perhaps indicate?
	What is repeated about the placement of the blood?
	 Time wise and in concord with v10, what may be indicated by the 'morning'? Also, keep this in mind for the next lesson.
3.	As Moses relays the instructions in v23, what is he communicating concerning Jehovah's actions?
4.	Vv 24-28 speak not just to the present for Israel but how the Passover is to be regarded in the future. From v24, how long are the children of Israel to keep this rite?
	What might that mean for the New Testament and further?

5.	What are some of the implications of v25?
6.	In vv26-27, what do the instructions relate concerning the Passover? • The children?
	The answer to the question posed?
	What was the response of the people? Why then?
7.	In v28, what was the follow up to the instructions given and the worship?
C	ONTEMPLATION
8.	Moses and finally the Israelites believed that Jehovah was going to pass harsh judgment upon Egypt. Do you believe the scriptures when they say that God will pass judgment upon the unbelieving? How are the children of God to respond to this?
9.	Many Egyptians probably also believed that Jehovah was going to pass harsh judgment upon them, but there seemed to be no hope. Deliverance was generally only for the Israelites. What is the difference now? See Ephesians 2.
